

New Dewey Number and CSH for prime ministership of Stephen Harper

The new number for the prime ministership of Stephen Harper (971.073) is now available for immediate use. The new number and the changed heading at 971.072, i.e., changing the date span to 2003-2006, will be in the next WebDewey release. The announcement about the new number and the new associated CSH headings is in today's Dewey blog, which has the title New number in Canadian history and can be found at http://ddc.typepad.com/025431/2006/03/new_number_in_c.html.

The related Canadian subject headings are:

Canada--Politics and government--2006-

(For works on the prime ministership of Stephen Harper.)

Canada--Politics and government--1993-2006

(Replaces Canada--Politics and government--1993- for works on the prime ministerships of Jean Chrétien and Paul Martin.)

Comments or questions should be directed to Standards, IMO.
