

On the Job: A Case Study

Assessment Criteria

Program Area: Social Studies (History)

Criterion: Understanding concepts

Attainment Descriptor:

- The student locates, records and presents accurate historical information related to a prominent Canadian woman, including biographical information and challenges faced by her.

Program Area: Guidance/Career Education

Criterion: Exploration of opportunities

Attainment Descriptors:

- The student identifies the characteristics and challenges of an occupation, and what education or training is required for that occupation.
- The student identifies ways that she or he can prepare for this occupation.
- The student develops a clear and appropriate timeline for education and training for her- or himself.

Program Area: Language, Reading

Criterion: Reading of non-fiction materials

Attainment Descriptors:

- The student reads relevant information from available sources as specified by the teacher.
- The student applies information from readings to the completion of an activity (presentation).

Program Area: Language, Oral and Visual Communication

Criterion: Communicating ideas and information for a variety of purposes

Attainment Descriptors:

- The student contributes to, and works constructively in, small groups.
- The student listens and responds constructively to alternate viewpoints.
- The student prepares and gives a presentation that uses visual aids.
- The student speaks in a clear voice, makes eye contact, and uses other physical and oral techniques to communicate effectively in presentation.