

Useful Web Links

Starlight Star Bright Globe

<http://www.sesameworkshop.org/parents/activity/article.php?contentId=22760>

Outer Space Crafts

<http://familycrafts.about.com/od/outerspace/>

Colouring Sheets Of Aliens

<http://www.coloring.ws/aliens.htm>

Making A Star (Christmas Tree Ornament)

<http://www.thursdaysclassroom.com/18dec01/teachactivity1.html>

Science Fiction Books For Kids With Some Activities

<http://www.goldenduck.org/lessons.php>

Most of these are lesson plans but some can be adapted for library fun

Digital Alien Puppets

<http://ww4.bhg.com/bhg/story.jhtml?storyid=/templatedata/bhg/story/data/10937.xml>

Just move on past all of the ads to these cute finger puppets

Colouring Sheets/Graphics

<http://teacherlink.ed.usu.edu/tlnasa/units/321Liftoff/21Graphics.pdf>

From NASA

Film Canister Rockets

<http://pbskids.org/zoom/printables/activities/pdfs/filmcanisterrocket.pdf>

Doorknob With Outerspace Images

<http://www.dltk-cards.com/doorknob/dk4-space.asp>

Osborne – Magic Tree House Midnight on the Moon – activities found at:

<http://www.randomhouse.com/teachers/magict/h/guides/space.html>

Useful Books

Irving, Jan and Robin Currie. Full Speed Ahead: Stories and Activities for Children on Transportation

Participatory stories – “Blast Off”

Songs – “Star Ship Crew Song”

Circle Stories – “The Way to Go Home”

Games – “Friendly Skies”

Rhymes – “Ring Around the Rocketship” and more

Kallevig, Christine Petrell Folding Stories

Story: “To the rescue” (Run for your Life! The Aliens are here!)

The Starting with Space series published by Kids Can Press has a lot of interesting facts, experiments, stories and activities that are sure to generate ideas for a programme or two.

Goodman, Polly Space and Art Activities

Blocksma, Mary Easy to Make Spaceships that Really Fly

Blocksma, Mary Space-Crafting: Invent Your Own Flying Spaceships

Irvin, Christine M. Cardboard Tube Mania
Includes instructions for both a super rocket and a Space Station

Kathy Charner(ed) The Giant Encyclopaedia of Art & Craft Activities
For outer space craft ideas