IMMIGRATION REFORM BILL AVAILABLE ON GPO'S FEDERAL DIGITAL SYSTEM

WASHINGTON – The U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) has made available the bipartisan Senate immigration reform bill known as the Border Security, Economic Opportunity, and Immigration Modernization Act on GPO's Federal Digital System (FDsys). FDsys is a one-stop site for authentic, published Government information. GPO launched FDsys in January 2009 and since that time it has expanded to include 800 thousand searchable titles and experienced more than 400 million document retrievals.

GPO is the Federal Government's official, digital, secure resource for producing, procuring, cataloging, indexing, authenticating, disseminating, and preserving the official information products of the U.S. Government. The GPO is responsible for the production and distribution of information products and services for all three branches of the Federal Government, including U.S. passports for the Department of State as well as the official publications of Congress, the White House, and other Federal agencies in digital and print formats. GPO provides for permanent public access to Federal Government information at no charge through our Federal Digital System (www.fdsys.gov), partnerships with approximately 1,200 libraries nationwide participating in the Federal Depository Library Program, and our secure online bookstore.
