1. Report on the Access to Information Act

1.1 Introduction

The Access to Information Act gives Canadian citizens, permanent residents, and all individuals and corporations present in Canada the right of access to records under the control of a government institution subject to the Act. The Act complements, but does not replace, other means of obtaining government information.

This report is prepared and tabled in Parliament in accordance with Section 72 of the Access to Information Act. It covers the period from April 1, 2015, to March 31, 2016.

1.2 FPCC Mandate

The Farm Products Council of Canada (FPCC), was established in 1972 under the Farm Products Agencies Act (the Act) as a unique public interest oversight body which reports to Parliament through the Minister of Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada (The Minister).

The FPCC; headed by a Chairperson (Deputy Head) appointed by the Governor-in-Council, is composed of up to seven Members of which at least half must be primary producers at the time of their appointment.

This Act provides for the creation of National Marketing Agencies as well as Promotion and Research Agencies. There are currently four Marketing Agencies: Canadian Hatching Egg Producers, Chicken Farmers of Canada, Egg Farmers of Canada and Turkey Farmers of Canada. There is also one Promotion Research Agency: Canada Beef. The FPCC supervises and works with these agencies to ensure that the supply management system for poultry and eggs and the promotion research activities for beef cattle work in the balanced interest of all stakeholders, from producers to consumers, and can evolve to respond to current and future challenges.

The FPCC also provides advice and recommendations to the Minister, collaborates with provincial supervisory boards and actively works with the Department and Agriculture and Agri-Food Portfolio Organizations.

1.3 Organization

The Chief Financial Officer has delegated authority to oversee the administration of the Access to information Act and the Privacy Act within the Farm Products Council of Canada and to ensure compliance with the legislation. While FPCC has currently one in house ATIP Coordinator, it relies on Agriculture & Agri-Food Canada whom acts as a service provider to the organization.

1.4 Delegation Order

Section 73 of the Access to Information Act provides for the Minister, as head of Agriculture & Agri-Food Canada, to delegate the powers, duties and functions designated by the Act.

The approved FPCC Delegation Order is provided in Annex A.

Delegation of Authority Instrument for the Administration of the Access to Information Act

The FPCC Delegation of Authority Instrument is provided in Annex B.

1.5 Statistical Report

Statistical reporting on the administration of the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act has been in place since 1983. The statistical reports prepared by government institutions provide aggregate data on the application of the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act legislations. This information is made public on an annual basis in an Info Source Bulletin and is included with the annual reports on access to information and privacy, which are tabled in Parliament by each institution.

The FPCC 2015–2016 statistical reports on the Access to Information Act is provided in Annex C.

1.6 Interpretation of the Statistical Report for Requests under the Access to Information Act

The following sections present the various trends and tendencies with regards to access to information requests. However, care must be taken in interpreting these trends, due to the low overall volume of requests generally received by FPCC. Small samples present with statistical properties which differ from larger ones and, as such, increases or decreases should not be interpreted as an indication of historical or emerging trends. The preceding caveat is particularly relevant to the current reporting period as only one request was received.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION DESIGNATION ORDER

(Farm Products Council of Canada)

The Minister of Agriculture and Agri-Food, pursuant to section 73 of the Access to the information Act, hereby designates the persons of the Department holding the positions set out in the schedule hereto, or the persons occupying on an acting basis those positions, to exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions of the Minister as the head of a government institution under the sections of the Act set out in the schedule opposite each position. This Designation Order supersedes all previous Designation Orders.

1.7 Requests Received and Outstanding from Previous Reporting Period

In 2015-2016, FPCC received one request, which represents a decrease from the two previous years. There were no outstanding requests from previous periods.

1.8 Completed Requests, Carried over to the next Reporting Period and Abandoned requests

The request which was received in 2015-2016 was closed during the reporting period, leaving no requests to carry over into future periods. Overall, this represents a lower volume of requests than in previous years. No requests were abandoned.

1.9 Application of Exemptions and Exclusions, Extensions and Consultations from Other Government Institutions (OGI)

In 2015-2016 there was one exemption in relation to the only request received during the reporting period. This volume is comparable to that seen in 2014-2015 as well as 2012-2013 but much lower than 2013-2014.

The following chart presents the number of consultations in each reporting period.

The following chart presents the number of extensions in each reporting periods as well as the duration of these extensions. There was only one extension during the reporting period. While the duration was longer than what was seen in previous years, this was likely a consequence of the volume of documents which had to be reviewed.

It must be noted that in 2013-2014 the categorization of days for extensions differed from those of the 2015-2016 period. Whereas only one category existed for extensions under 30 days, two are now included. For greater certainty and in order to avoid underestimating the duration of a given extension, one request which was initially coded as under 30 days, was coded as between 16 and 30 days for the purpose of this analysis.

1.10 Completion Time

The following chart presents the number of days required to dispose of requests during the various reporting periods. While number of days to close the sole request received during 2015-2016 was much higher than in previous years, it is likely due to the very large number of pages reviewed in relation to this request.

1.11 Exemption Invoked

The following table presents an overview of the sections to which exemptions invoked related to. There are no discernable trends or tendencies observed. The exemptions invoked in 2015-2016 are similar to those of other control periods.

	Exemptions
	2012-2013	2013-2014	2014-2015	2015-2016

Section 21	0	3	1	0

1.12 Number of Pages Reviewed and Released

Although there was only one request received and closed during the reporting period, the number of pages reviewed and released was much higher than that seen in previous requests. For the previous three reporting periods, the average number of pages reviewed was approximately 500 compared to over 6000 for the 2015-2016 reporting period.

1.13 Appeals to the Federal Court

No Appeals to the Federal Court were undertaken for 2015-2016 reporting period.

1.14 Fees

During the reporting period, the FPCC collected $5.00 in application fees, NIL in search fees, NIL in programming fees and NIL for reproduction of material to be released or for response preparation time.

1.15 Costs

During 2015–16, the ATIP Office incurred $2,000.00 in salary costs and $0.00 in administrative costs (software licences, professional services fees, office equipment and supplies, training) to administer the Access to Information Act.

1.16 Training and Education

One orientation and awareness session was undertaken for the 2015-2016 reporting period, and one participant attended this session for 2015-2016 reporting period.
