Patient's name

Part B - Must be filled out by the medical practitioner

Step 1 – Fill out only the section(s) on pages 7 to 20 [2 to 4] that apply to your patient. Each category states which medical practitioner(s) can certify the information in this part.

Note

Whether filling out this form for a child or an adult, assess your patient compared to someone of similar age with no impairment.

Step 2 – Fill out the "Effects of impairment", "Duration", and "Certification" sections on pages 20 to 23 [5]. If more information is needed, the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) may contact you.

Eligibility for the DTC is based on the effects of the impairment, not on the medical condition itself. For definitions and examples of impairments that may qualify for the DTC, see Guide RC4064, "Disability-Related Information". For more information, go to cra.gc.ca/dtcmedicalpractitioners.

Vision – Medical doctor or optometrist

Your patient is considered blind if, even with the use of corrective lenses or medication:

- the visual acuity in both eyes is 20/200 (6/60) or less, with the Snellen Chart (or an equivalent); or
- the greatest diameter of the field of vision in both eyes is 20 degrees or less.

1. Is your patient blind , as described above?		Yes		No
If yes , when did your patient become blind, (the necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is case with progressive diseases)?			Υε	ar
2. What is your patient's visual acuity after correction?	Right e	ye	Le	ft ey	ye
3. What is your patient's visual field after correction (in degrees if possible)?	Right e	ye	Le	ft ey	ye

Speaking – Medical doctor or speech-language pathologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in speaking if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to speak so as to be understood by another person familiar with the patient, in a quiet setting; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in speaking, as described above?	Yes No
If yes , when did your patient's restriction in speaking become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with progressive diseases)?	Year

Hearing – Medical doctor or audiologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in hearing if, even with appropriate devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to hear so as to understand another person familiar with the patient, in a quiet setting; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in hearing, as described above?	Yes No
If yes , when did your patient's restriction in hearing
become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with	Year progressive diseases)?

Walking – Medical doctor, occupational therapist, or physiotherapist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in walking if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to walk; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in walking, as described above?	Yes No
If yes , when did your patient's restriction in walking
become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with	Year progressive diseases)?

Eliminating (bowel or bladder functions) - Medical doctor

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in eliminating if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to personally manage bowel or bladder functions; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in eliminating, as described above?	Yes		No
If yes , when did your patient's restriction in eliminating become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with		Ye	ar
progressive diseases)?

Feeding -	Medical	doctor	or	occupational	therapist
-----------	---------	--------	----	--------------	-----------

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in feeding if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to feed himself or herself; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Feeding yourself does not include identifying, finding, shopping for, or obtaining food.

Feeding yourself does include preparing food, except when the time spent is related to a dietary restriction or regime, even when the restriction or regime is needed due to an illness or medical condition.

Is your patient markedly restricted in feeding, as
described above?	Yes	No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in feeding become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Ye	ar

Dressing – Medical doctor or occupational therapist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in dressing if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to dress himself or herself; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Dressing yourself does not include identifying, finding, shopping for, or obtaining clothing.

Is your patient markedly restricted in dressing, as
described above?	Yes	No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in dressing become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Mental functions necessary for everyday life – Medical doctor or psychologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life (described below) if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices (for example, memory aids and adaptive aids):

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to perform these functions by himself or herself; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Mental functions necessary for everyday life include:

- adaptive functioning (for example, abilities related to self-care, health and safety, abilities to initiate and respond to social interactions, and common, simple transactions);
- memory (for example, the ability to remember simple instructions, basic personal information such as name and address, or material of importance and interest); and
- problem-solving, goal-setting, and judgment taken together (for example, the ability to solve problems, set and keep goals, and make the appropriate decisions and judgments).

Note

A restriction in problem-solving, goal-setting, or judgment that markedly restricts adaptive functioning, all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time), would qualify.

Is your patient markedly restricted in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life, as
described above?	Yes	No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Life-sustaining therapy – Medical doctor

Life-sustaining therapy for your patient must meet both of the following criteria:

- your patient needs this therapy to support a vital function, even if this therapy has eased the symptoms; and
- your patient needs this therapy at least 3 times per week, for an average of at least 14 hours per week.

The 14-hour per week requirement

Include only the time your patient must dedicate to the therapy – that is, the patient has to take time away from normal, everyday activities to receive it.

If a child cannot do the activities related to the therapy because of his or her age, include the time spent by the child's primary caregivers to do and supervise these activities.

Do not include the time a portable or implanted device takes to deliver the therapy, the time spent on activities related to dietary restrictions or regimes (such as carbohydrate calculation) or exercising (even when these activities are a factor in determining the daily dosage of medication), travel time to receive therapy, medical appointments (other than appointments where the therapy is received), shopping for medication, or recuperation after therapy.

1. Does your patient need this therapy to support a vital function?	Yes No
2. Does your patient need this therapy at least 3 times per week?	Yes No
3. Does this therapy take an average of at least 14 hours per week?	Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

It is mandatory that you describe how the therapy meets the criteria stated above. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper sign it and attach it to this form.

Cumulative effect of significant restrictions - Medic	al doctor or occupational therapist

Note: An occupational therapist can only certify limitation for walking, feeding and dressing.

Answer all the following questions to certify the cumulative effect of your patient's significant restrictions.

	1. Even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices, does your patient have a significant restriction, that is not quite a marked restriction, in two or more basic activities of daily living or in vision and one or more of the basic activities of daily living?			Yes	No

You cannot include the time spent on life-sustaining therapy.

- 2. Do these restrictions exist together, all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time)?
 3. Is the cumulative effect of these significant
- restrictions equivalent to being markedly restricted in one basic activity of daily living?

 Yes No
- 4. When did the cumulative effect described above begin (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Effects of impairment – Mandatory

The effects of your patient's impairment must be those which, even with therapy and the use of appropriate devices and medication, cause your patient to be restricted all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Note

Working, housekeeping, managing a bank account, and social or recreational activities are not considered basic activities of daily living. Basic activities of daily living are limited to walking, speaking, hearing, dressing, feeding, eliminating (bowel or bladder functions), and mental functions necessary for everyday life.

It is mandatory that you describe the effects of your patient's impairment on his or her ability to do each of the basic activities of daily living that you indicated are or were markedly or significantly restricted. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper, sign it and attach it to this form. You may include copies of medical reports, diagnostic tests, and any other medical information, if needed.

Duration – Mandatory

Has your patient's impairment lasted, or is it expected to last, for a continuous period of at least 12 months? For deceased patients, was the impairment expected to last for a continuous period of at least 12 months?	Yes No
If yes , has the impairment improved, or is it likely to improve, to such an extent that the patient would no longer be blind, markedly restricted, in need of life-sustaining therapy, or have the equivalent of a marked restriction due to the cumulative effect of significant restrictions? Unsure	Yes No
If yes , enter the year that the improvement occurred or may be expected to occur.	Year

General Information

What is the DTC?

The disability tax credit (DTC) is a non-refundable tax credit that helps persons with disabilities or their supporting persons reduce the amount of income tax they may have to pay. The disability amount may be claimed once the person with a disability is eligible for the DTC. This amount includes a supplement for persons under 18 years of age at the end of the year. Being eligible for this credit may open the door to other programs.

For more information, go to cra.gc.ca/dtc or see Guide RC4064, "Disability-Related Information".

Are you eligible?

You are eligible for the DTC only if we approve your application. On this form, a medical practitioner has to indicate and certify that you have a severe and prolonged impairment and must describe its effects.

To find out if you may be eligible for the DTC, fill out the self-assessment questionnaire in Guide RC4064, "Disability-Related Information". If we have already told you that you are eligible, do not send another form unless the previous period of approval has ended or if we tell you that we need one. You should tell us if your medical condition improves.

If you receive Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan disability benefits, workers' compensation benefits, or other types of disability or insurance benefits, it does not necessarily mean you are eligible for the DTC. These programs have other purposes and different criteria, such as an individual's inability to work.

You can send the form at any time during the year. By sending your form before you file your income tax and benefit return, you may prevent a delay in your assessment. We will review your form before we assess your return. Keep a copy for your records.

Fees – You are responsible for any fees that the medical practitioner charges to fill out this form or to give us more information. However, you may be able to claim these fees as medical expenses on line 330 or line 331 of your income tax and benefit return.

What happens after you send Form T2201?

After we receive Form T2201, we will review your application. We will then send you a notice of determination to inform you of our decision. Our decision is based on the information given by the medical practitioner. If your application is denied, we will explain why on the notice of determination. For more information, see Guide RC4064, "Disability-Related Information", or go to cra.gc.ca/dtc.
