CHAPTER 1

An Ordinance to Amend the Judicature Ordinance.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, enacts as follows:

Actions in Small Debts
Court may be tried in vacation.

1. Rule 557 of the Judicature Ordinance, being Chapter 17 of the Consolidated Ordinances, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "business" in the first line of Sub-Section 2 of said Rule the words "other than under Part III. of this Ordinance."

CHAPTER 2

An Ordinance to Amend the Assessment Ordinance and to Declare Valid Certain Rebates Heretofore Granted.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, enacts as follows:

1. Section 45 of Chapter 64 of the Consolidated Ordinances is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

Persons paying taxes before certain dates entitled to reduction.

"45. All persons paying taxes on or before the fifteenth day of November of the year in which such taxes were levied shall be entitled to a reduction of ten per cent. on the amount of such taxes, and all persons paying taxes after the fifteenth and before the thirtieth day of November of the year in which such taxes were levied shall be entitled to a reduction of five per cent. on the same."

2. Section 46 of said Chapter 64 is amended by adding thereto the following:

“Provided that the Commissioner, in any case where it is deemed by him equitable to do so, may, upon payment of taxes in arrear, by memorandum in writing over his signature, grant and allow a rebate of such penalty or so much thereof as he may think just, and such memorandum shall be filed with the Tax Collector and shall set forth the grounds upon which the rebate is granted, and a copy thereof shall be laid before the Yukon Council within the first five days of the Session of said Council next after the granting of any such rebate.”

Commissioner may grant rebate of penalty in certain cases.

3. All rebates or remissions of penalties heretofore granted or made by any Commissioner of the Yukon Territory upon or in relation to taxes levied and assessed upon or against any person in respect to property or income in the City of Dawson shall be deemed to have been lawfully granted and made and are hereby declared to be valid.

Rebates heretofore granted declared valid.

CHAPTER 3

An Ordinance Respecting Pawnbrokers.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, enacts as follows:

License to pawnbroker.

1. No person shall exercise the trade of a pawnbroker in the Yukon Territory unless he shall have obtained a license therefor under the hand of the Territorial Secretary, nor unless he has obtained a renewal of the same annually.

Fee on license and renewal application of fee.

2. On receipt of such license and also on receipt of each renewal thereof each pawnbroker shall pay to the Territorial Treasurer the sum of fifty dollars.

Penalty for acting without license.

3. Every person exercising such trade without having obtained a license, or renewal thereof, as aforesaid, shall forfeit twenty-five dollars for every pledge he takes, to be recovered with costs before any police or stipendiary magistrate.

License to be exhibited in shop.

4. Every pawnbroker shall exhibit in some conspicuous part of his shop, or place of business, during the whole of each day, a printed or clearly and legibly written table showing in detail the rates of charges authorized by law to be taken by such pawnbroker, and for each default to comply with the provisions of this Section shall be liable to a penalty of eight dollars.

5. He shall also keep a book, in which shall be entered at the time of each loan a description of the goods pawned and when, the sum lent thereon, the name and residence of the pawner, and at the same time shall deliver to the pawner a duplicate of the entry, which shall be produced to the pawnbroker before he shall be obliged to restore the pawn except as hereinafter provided. The book so kept shall at all reasonable times within business hours be open to the inspection of any justice, and shall be produced by him, if required, under the penalty of ten dollars for each offence.

Information to be entered in book and duplicate given to pawner.

Inspection of book by Justice.

6. Pawned goods not redeemed within one year may be sold at public auction after ten days notice of the time and place of sale, with a description of them published in a newspaper or posted up in the pawn office and two other public places in the town where the sale is to take place; if any surplus remain after deducting the loan, interest, expense of advertising and selling, it shall be paid to the person entitled thereto, and for every offence against this Section the pawnbroker shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Sale of unredeemed goods.

7. Every pawnbroker shall enter in a book an account of the sale of such goods, the time and place thereof, when pledged, the name of the pawner, the name of the auctioneer, the proceeds of sale and the expenses, which book may be inspected by the pawner or his personal representatives, at any time; the pawnbroker shall also pay over the net proceeds of sale to the pawner when demanded. For a breach by the pawnbroker of any of the duties imposed upon him by this Section he shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Account of sale to be kept in book.

8. Goods pawned may be redeemed at any time within one year from the pawning thereof. If the pawnbroker refuse to return the pledge after tender of principal and interest due thereon, he shall, upon conviction thereof before a Justice, be committed until he re-deliver the pledge or make satisfaction for the value.

Within what time goods may be redeemed.

Holder of duplicate entry to be deemed owner.

9. The person producing the duplicate entry shall be deemed the owner, and the pawnbroker shall be indemnified if he deliver the goods to the holder of such duplicate, unless the same be lost, mislaid or fraudulently obtained.

Loss of duplicate entry.

10. If the duplicate entry be lost, mislaid, or obtained as aforesaid, and on oath before a Justice or a Commissioner for taking affidavits he shall so certify, the pawnbroker shall then be entitled to redeem the goods upon leaving with the pawnbroker copies of the duplicate entry and the oath.

Goods not to be pawned by minor or intoxicated person.

Sign.

11. No pawnbroker shall take goods in pledge from any person under the age of eighteen, knowing him to be so, or an intoxicated person, at any time; every pawnbroker whilst carrying on his business in any shop or store, shall place over the outside door thereof a sign, upon which shall be painted or printed in large and legible characters his name, and underneath the words "Loan Office." For every week such sign is not there he shall forfeit ten dollars.

Who to be deemed pawnbroker.

12. Every person who takes or receives by way of pawn, pledge or exchange any goods for the repayment of money lent thereon, shall be deemed a "pawnbroker" within the meaning of this Chapter.

Section 11, Chapter 5, of 1906, repealed.

13. Sub-Section 30 of Section 11 of Chapter 5 of the Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, passed by the Yukon Council in the year 1906, being an Ordinance to amend Chapter 64 of the Consolidated Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, "The Assessment Ordinance," is hereby repealed.

Time of coming into force.

14. This Ordinance shall come into force on the second day of July, 1913.

CHAPTER 4

An Ordinance to Declare Valid Certain By-Laws of the City of Dawson, Alleged to Have Been Enacted by the Commissioner and Administrator of the Yukon Territory.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

Whereas, Doubts have arisen as to the validity of certain By-Laws for the City of Dawson purporting to have been enacted by the Commissioner and Administrator prior to the first day of February, 1912, the same having been so enacted without the advice and consent of the Yukon Council and it is deemed expedient to validate the same. Preamble.

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, therefore enacts as follows:

1. All By-Laws heretofore passed or alleged to have been heretofore passed by any Commissioner or Administrator of the Yukon Territory relating to the City of Dawson or the Government thereof are hereby declared to be valid and to have continued in force and effect from the respective dates of the passage thereof as fully as if the same had been passed and enacted by the Commissoiner in Council. Certain By-Laws declared valid.

CHAPTER 6

An Ordinance Authorizing the Consolidation of the Ordinances of the Yukon Territory and the By-Laws of the City of Dawson.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

Preamble: Whereas, It is expedient that measures should be adopted for consolidating the Ordinances of the Yukon Territory and the By-Laws of the City of Dawson.

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, therefore enacts as follows:

Commissioner to be appointed to consolidate Ordinances and By-Laws.

1. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner to issue a commission to two or more persons, constituting them Commissioners for consolidating the Ordinances of the North-West Territories in force in the Yukon Territory, the Ordinances of the Yukon Territory and the By-Laws of the City of Dawson, and to include in such consolidation and revision the Ordinances and By-Laws passed at the present Session of the Yukon Council, and such Ordinances and By-Laws passed at the next Session of said Council as it may be deemed expedient so to include, and from time to time, in case of the death or refusal or incapacity to act of any of the said Commissioners, to appoint some other person or persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners as aforesaid to accomplish the purpose of this Ordinance.

2. The said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to prepare and arrange for publication of the said Ordinances and By-Laws, to omit all such Ordinances and By-Laws and parts of Ordinances and By-Laws as have expired, been repealed or had their effect, and all Ordinances and By-Laws repealing any or any parts of any Ordinances and By-Laws, as well as the Ordinances and By-Laws, and parts of Ordinances and By-Laws repealed, and the schedules of all such repealed or repealing Ordinances and By-Laws, and to alter the numbers of the said Ordinances and By-Laws and the Sections thereof, and without in any manner changing or affecting the legal effect of the said Ordinances and By-Laws, correct any misprint or error or any contradiction or ambiguity in the said Ordinances and By-Laws, and to make such alterations in their language as are requisite in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression and may make such minor amendments as are necessary to bring out more clearly what they deem to have been the intention of the Yukon Council or the City Council, as the case may be, or to reconcile seemingly inconsistent enactments, or to correct clerical or typographical errors and to frame a comprehensive index to the entire work.

Commissioners to prepare and arrange for publication Ordinances and By-Laws

3. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner to direct the payment of such sum or sums as he may think fit, not exceeding the moneys to be appropriated from time to time by the Commissioner in Council for such purpose, as a remuneration for such Commissioners, and also for such further charges and expenses as may be incurred, laid out and expended in the printing and binding of the said Consolidated Ordinances and By-Laws or incident thereto.

Commissioner authorized to direct payment for consolidating printing, etc.

CHAPTER 7

An Ordinance to Amend Chapter 2 of the Consolidated Ordinances Respecting the Council of the Yukon Territory.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, enacts as follows:

CHAPTER 11

An Ordinance for Granting to the Commissioner Certain Sums of Money to Defray the Expenses of the Public Service of the Yukon Territory.

[Assented to April 15th, 1913.]

Whereas, It appears by Message from George Black, Esquire, the Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, and in the Supplementary Estimates accompanying the same, that the sums hereinafter mentioned in the Schedules "A" and "B" are required to defray certain further expenses of the Public Service of the Yukon Territory, and for other purposes relating thereto for the twelve months ending March 31st, 1912, and are required to defray certain further expenses of the Public Service of the Yukon Territory, and for other purposes relating thereto for the twelve months ending March 31st, 1913; and,

Whereas, It appears by Message from George Black, Esquire, the Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, and the Estimates accompanying the same, that the sums hereinafter mentioned in Schedule "C" to this Ordinance are required to defray certain expenses of the Public Service of the Yukon Territory, and for the purposes relating thereto for the twelve months ending March 31st, 1914;

It is, therefore, hereby enacted by the Commissioner, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the Yukon Territory, as follows:
