

I am in a wheelchair and can't walk. Airplanes with a single aisle are not required to provide an accessible washroom for a wheelchair. Lately the flights I have taken all have been on single aisle flights which can be over 6 hours in length which makes me have to hold it. I am first on and last off which makes me have to hold it longer. There is no discussion how I will get off in case of an emergency.
Diane Couch

Diane Couch