Acres of insurable crop group	(3) All acres of an insurable crop group, as identified in section 7, must be offered for insurance coverage in order to have a valid contract of insurance.
Coverage	(4) Those insurable crops identified in the Schedules are eligible for coverage under an individual insurance contract. (EC299/08)
Independent applicant	4. (1) For the purposes of the production insurance program, an applicant for a contract of insurance, or an insured, shall be financially and operationally independent of all other farm businesses growing the same insurable crop or insurable crop group.

(2) Before separate insurance contracts can be issued for a farm operation with multiple partners or owners, or before insurable crops or insurable crop groups on a farm unit can be split, the applicant or the insured shall provide documents to prove financial independence, as specified in subsection (2.1).

Documents to prove financial independence

(2.1) The financial independence of an applicant or an insured shall be determined by the Corporation based on whether the documents provided by the applicant or insured show that the applicant's or insured's available resources to finance the crop to be insured are sufficient to enable the applicant or insured to manage and sell the crop and to pay the operating expenses incurred to grow the crop, evaluated in accordance with the following criteria:

Criteria for determination

- (a) operating credit sufficient to produce the insured crop;
- (b) a farm income and expense statement that applies to the insured crop in the form of tax returns that pertain to that crop;
- (c) invoices for inputs purchased to grow the insured crop;
- (d) a bill of sale for the crop insured;
- (e) a valid HST rebate tax number.

(3) If an applicant or an insured fails to meet the criteria for financial independence specified in subsection (2.1), and the person with whom the applicant is financially dependent is also an applicant or an insured,

Not financially independent

- (a) the Corporation
 - (i) shall combine the applicant's application with the application of the other applicant with whom the applicant is financially dependent and consider them as a single application, or
 - (ii) shall deem the insured and the other insured with whom the insured is financially dependent to be one insured; and
- (b) section 7 applies to the contract of insurance as if the insureds were one insured.

(4) If, at any time, an insured who claims to be financially independent of another insured is found by the Corporation not to be financially independent of the other insured, the Corporation shall deem the insureds to be one insured, including the application of section 7, for the crop year and for any subsequent crop years for which the insureds apply for crop insurance.

Deemed to be one insured

(5) Where applications for contracts of insurance are made by corporations and partnerships the financial independence of the shareholders or partners from other farm businesses growing the same insurable crop shall be considered by the Corporation as factors in deciding eligibility.

Eligibility

Determination of
dependence

(5.1) The operational dependence of an applicant shall be determined by the Corporation with regard to whether the applicant or insured does not own or lease sufficient equipment to plant, grow and harvest a crop but depends on custom work or other services to the extent that the applicant's or insured's management control of the crop is affected.

dependence

(6) If an applicant
(a) is operationally dependent on another insured; and
(b) has a non-arm's length relationship with that insured,
the records of the Corporation relating to both the applicant and the other insured may be used to determine the probable yield and the performance index for purposes of setting coverage levels and to determine the premium discount or surcharges and, where such a relationship exists, that person and the other insured will be deemed to be operationally dependent. (EC299/08; 139/17)

Identification

5. (1) All fields of all insurable crops and all varieties of insurable crops grown on each field shall be properly identified and declared to the Corporation.

Idem

- (a) it is accompanied by a deposit of 15% of the estimated premium;
- and
- (b) all premiums and interest owing on insured crops from any previous year have been paid in full.

Insured's premium (6) The insured's premium cost is calculated by applying the insured's share of total premiums to the total premium costs.

Idem (7) The insured's share of premiums may be adjusted by Provincial Government incentives, subject to the insured's eligibility, as established by the Corporation.

Deposit (8) The deposit, required with the application, is calculated by applying the deposit requirement stated in subsection (4) to the insured's

Relative loss ratio	(2) The relative loss ratio (RLR) used to establish the discount or surcharge is the ratio between an insured's loss ratio for an insurable crop group and the loss ratio for the province as a whole for the same insurable crop group over the same period of time.
Calculation	(3) The loss ratio discount or surcharge will be calculated as follows: (a) for insureds with a loss ratio based on fewer than five years of insurance history, the discount or surcharge percentage will be equal to $(RLR - 1) \times N \times .1$ (where N = number of years insured); Discount and surcharges shall be capped at 10% per year, for the first five years; (b) for insureds with a loss ratio based on five or more years of insurance history, the discount or surcharge percentage will be equal to $(RLR - 1) \times 5 \times .1$;
Idem	(4) In the calculations described in subsection (3), a result less than zero represents a discount from the base premium rate, and a result greater than zero represents a surcharge on the base premium rate.
Maximum discounts or surcharge	(5) In no case may the discount or surcharge calculated under subsection (3) exceed (a) 10% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on one year of insurance history; (b) 20% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on two years of insurance history; (c) 30% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on three years of insurance history; (d) 40% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on four years of insurance history; or (e) 50% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on five or more years of insurance history. (EC299/08)

YIELD CALCULATIONS AND PRODUCTION REPORTING

Production summary	15. (1) The insured shall complete and file with the Corporation a production summary
--------------------	--

- (a) at the end of harvest and no later than the final date for filing a Proof of Loss, as stated in the Schedules for each insurable crop or plan; and
- (b) that states the total units produced and a production to count for each insurable crop or variety, as stated on the final acreage report.

(2) The Corporation has the right to check and verify production summary information submitted by the insured. Idem

(3) If the insured is not in compliance with subsection (1), the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation shall provide to the insured and to the Corporation a production summary for each insured crop or variety grown by an insured client by the final date for filing a Proof of Loss, as stated in the Schedules for each insurable crop or plan. Idem

(4) The insured may meet the obligations of clause 15(1)(a) by signing the production summary prepared by the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation as stated in clause 15(1)(b). Idem

(5) The insured's signature on the production summary prepared by the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation shall indicate acceptance

- (a) of the total units produced and the production to count established for each insurable crop, variety, insurable crop group or plan, as stated therein; and
- (b) of the final production to count to be used by the Corporation to determine indemnity payments. Idem

(6) The Corporation reserves the right to adjust the final production to count declared by the insured or an agent of the Corporation for insurable and non-insurable perils in order to establish a final production to count. (EC299/08; 139/17) Idem

16. The Corporation shall establish benchmark yields for each insurable crop or variety on an annual basis. (EC299/08) Benchmark yields

17. (1) A probable yield shall be calculated for each insurable crop or variety annually, and this yield shall be a weighted average of the insured's own production to count for that insurable crop or variety during the most recent ten-year period. Probable yield

(2) For the purposes of a probable yield calculation, Idem

Probable Yield = total production to count for all years insured / total acres grown for all years insured.

- Probable yield with no history
- (3) Where no insured's data is available during the most recent ten-year period, a provincial benchmark yield for the insurable crop will be used to establish the insured's probably yield and
- (a) if no insured's data is available on any insurable crop within the insurable crop group, as specified in section 7, the insured's probable yield is equal to the benchmark for the insurable crop;
 - (b) if the insured's data is available on any insurable crop group, the Corporation may adjust the benchmark if the insured's performance index from another crop group or groups if, in the opinion of the Corporation
 - (i) the new crop group has similar cultural practices and management requirements as an existing insurable crop groups and an adjustment is deemed warranted,
 - (ii) a new crop is deemed to be grown to manipulate the production insurance program, or
 - (iii) past performance in other insurable crop groups shows a trend that would warrant an adjustment.
- Performance index calculation
- (4) A performance index is calculated for each insured using the following process
- (a) a ratio is calculated each year for each insured crop by comparing the actual yield for that crop to the provincial average for the same crop of the same year;
 - (b) a ratio for each crop group is calculated by adding the ratio's for each crop within a crop group and dividing by the number of crops within the crop group that were grown that year;
 - (c) the performance index is calculated by adding all the yearly ratio's for each crop group and dividing by the number of years insured, up to a maximum of 10 years; and
 - (d) a 15% sleeve, for an index below or above 100%, is allowed before any adjustment is made to the probable yield, for new crops.
- Historical production data
- (5) Any insured or those wishing to insure may provide historical production data and these production figures may be entered into the insured's production history and used in the probable yield calculations if:
- (a) all yield information for all crops grown in the years to be supplied are included in the data;
 - (b) the yield and acreage information is verified to the satisfaction of the Corporation;
 - (c) the yield history provided is for consecutive years dating back from the present crop year.
- Probable yield calculation
- (6) Where fewer than five years of production to count data is available for an insurable crop, the probable yield calculation will be supplemented with a provincial benchmark yield, that being, $(\text{Benchmark yield} + [N \times \text{weighted average yield}] / (N + 1))$, where N is the number of years for which an insured's production to count records and supplied data records are available, and the weighted average yield for the same insurable crops is the ratio of total production to count to the total planted acres during the years for which production to count and supplied data records are available.

(7) Where industry yields increase over time resulting from improvements in technology, a trend adjustment factor may be added to the calculated probable yield, but any trend adjustment will not apply until after the probable yield calculation includes ten years of insured production to count data.

Trend adjustment

(8) Coverage levels for each insurable crop, insurable crop group or plan shall be agreed to by the Corporation, Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada, and shall be approved by the Board.

Coverage levels

(9) Coverage levels selected by the insured shall be applied to the probable yield for each insurable crop to determine the guaranteed yield and for non-yield based plans the coverage level shall be applied to the unit value to establish an insured value for each insurable unit.

Idem

(10) Coverage levels greater than 70% may only be offered for new insurable crops or plans if they receive approval from Agriculture, Agri-Food Canada and the Board prior to being offered.

Idem

(11) Coverage levels up to 80% may be offered to those established insurable crops or plans with fully loaded premium rates which are calculated to be greater than 9%

Idem

(12) Coverage levels up to 90% may be offered to those established insurable crops or plans with fully loaded premium rates which are calculated to be less than 9%.

Idem

(13) Guaranteed yield for each insurable crop or plan shall be the product of the insured's probable yield for each insurable crop or plan, the coverage level selected by the insured, expressed as a percentage, and the acres insured under a contract of insurance, expressed on a per unit, insurable crop or plan basis.

Guaranteed yield

(14) The guaranteed yield shall be adjusted on any acres of an insurable crop planted after the prescribed final planting date, as stated in the Schedules.

Adjustment for late planted acres

Reduction, guaranteed yield	(15) The Corporation shall reduce the guaranteed yield on all acres planted after the final planting deadline by 1% for each day the acreage was planted after that date, subject to subsection (16).
Ineligible acreage	(16) Final planting dates are those dates listed in the Schedules and any acreage of a crop planted later than fifteen days after the final planting date is not eligible for insurance and shall be removed from the insurance contract.
Exception	(17) The fifteen-day period specified in subsection (16) does not apply to acres insured in the elite seed potato plan. (EC299/08; 139/17)
