Hello,

My name is Laura Pellicer and I'm a journalist with CBC Radio in Montreal. We recently released a CBC poll where we asked people for their perspectives on Quebec. On Friday we're focusing on Montreal.

The interview would be Friday morning ideally in the CBC studio.

Please give me a call back as soon as you can at 514-597-3749.

Thank you very much and have a nice day,

Hi

Not sure if you remember me -
we had you on this Fall to talk about the charter debates.

I work at CBC Homerun and

Your name came up today as someone we'd be interested in hearing from about this poll CBC has conducted.

We asked people the following question:

The Parti Quebecois government is actively trying to discourage non-Francophones from remaining in Quebec.

37% of Francophones agree

81% of Anglophones agree

15/7/2014

CBC Radio-Canada Mail - Fwd: ATIP - Homerun March 3

78% of Allophones agree

It's also worth noting that 61% of visible minorities (people who identified themselves as non-Caucasian) agree with the statement. That compares to 44% of Caucasians.

If you might be available for a quick chat today on our show (ideally live in the studio but we can also do phone) that would be fantastic! Let me know what you think.

Best,

Kate

Bonjour

CBC Montreal aimerait faire une demande pour une entrevue avec idéalement pour lundi le 3 mars, mardi le 4 ou mercredi le 5.

Vous êtes peut être au courant que CBC Montreal a récemment commissionner une sondage sur les perspectives des francophones et anglophones au Quebec. Nous avons découvert des faits très intéressants sur le positions des deux groupes sur les services du gouvernement, et leurs intentions de rester dans la province ou quitter la province. Pour chaque jour nous allons dévoiler les résultats différents du sondage. S'il vous plait indiquer quel jour serait disponible et je pourrait vous envoyé plus de renseignements sur le sondage pour ce jour la.

On préférerait une entrevue le matin vers 8:15 en studio sur l'émission Daybreak, en même temps on pourrait arranger une entrevue pour CBC télévision et Radio-Canada.

Vous pouvez me rejoindre au bureau au 514-597-4471. Merci beaucoup!

Bonjour

CBC Montreal aimerait faire une demande pour une entrevue avec idéalement pour lundi le 3 mars, mardi le 4 ou mercredi le 5.

Vous êtes peut être au courant que CBC Montreal a récemment commissionner un sondage sur les perspectives des francophones et anglophones au Quebec. Nous avons découvert des faits très intéressants sur le positions des deux groupes sur les services du gouvernement, et leurs intentions de rester dans la province ou quitter la province. Pour chaque jour nous allons dévoiler les résultats différents du sondage.

Je sais que a déjà donner quelques commentaires mais on aimerait faire une entrevue plus compréhensive. S'il vous plait indiquer quel jour serait disponible et je pourrait vous envoyé plus de renseignements sur le sondage pour ce jour la.

Let me just say you're the best. Thanks so much for finding the time to join us on the show today!

Here are the details about the interview.

The CBC commissioned a poll called "Stay or Go" where we asked Quebecers "have you seriously considered leaving Quebec in the past year?" We found that over half of Anglophones and Allophones had seriously considered leaving. Every day we're rolling out new deets about the poll.

Today we are focusing on the questions: Do you think you can succeed in Quebec? Do you think your kids can succeed? Do you feel welcome? We discovered that 53% of Anglophones think they can succeed here, that's down from 65% last year. Pretty much on all those questions, Anglophones and Allophones think they have less chance of success here.

Bonjour

J'espère que tout va bien avec vous. Je m'appelle Laura Pellicer, je suis une journaliste avec CBC Radio a Montréal, pour l'émission Homerun.

Aujourd'hui nous dévoilons les résultats de notre sondage "Stay or Go" sur le sujet du niveau de satisfaction des Francophones vers le PQ.

On aimerait beaucoup si vous pourriez venir en studio pour donner vos commentaires a propos de ceci. On pourrait vous envoyé toutes les résultats que nous avons et l'entrevue serait idéalement a 17:15. Est-ce ça vous intéresse?

Merci bien!

Hi

Here's a bit of background: The CBC launched a 2 week series about whether anglophones and allophones are seriously considering leaving Quebec. Our series is based on a poll we commissioned from the EKOS polling firm.

Tomorrow we are focusing whether: "The Parti Quebecois government is actively trying to discourage non-Francophones from remaining in Quebec."

We found that 61% of visible minorities agreed with that statement.

Hello

Sorry about the wait for these details... it was a late night at the office!

The story for tomorrow is about reaction to a CBC exclusive poll. Tomorrow we are focusing on the response to a question about racial tension.

The results from this poll are still under embargo.

Here are those numbers:

58% of respondents agree with the statement: "Racial tension has increased in the last year." (68% of Anglophones agree. 73% of Allophones agree. And 55% of Francophones agree.)

We also have asked respondents whether - "The Charter will create social cohesion." 41% agree and 41% disagree.

Here are the interview details:

We will call you on your home number at 7:10.

Hello

My name is Laura Pellicer and I'm a journalist with CBC Radio in Montreal. We recently released a CBC poll where we asked people for their perspectives on Quebec. On Friday we're focusing on Montreal. We found from our poll that many Montrealers think the city is worse off than it was five years ago.

we were hoping to get your perspective on the subject. The interview would be Friday morning ideally in the CBC studio.

Please give me a call back as soon as you can at 514-597-3749.

Thank you very much and have a nice day,

Laura

Happy Thursday night!

We have wrapped up the CBC Stay or Go live chat. Thank you to Molly, Meredith, Melinda, (and our special guest, alliteration) Ben, Debra, Jason and Daphne - the wonderful people that put this all together! And thank you to the news hub for hosting us.

You can find the entire conversation in dalet>news>aujourd'hui and it is called CBC Montreal - Stay or Go Live event (40648).

Here is the overall breakdown.

Host: Debra Arbec

Guests:

- Peter Wheeland
- Andy Nulman
- Natalia Yanchak
- Heather O'Neill
- Mark Kelley
- Sofia Bouanane

OPEN - 06:21 Introductions

06:21 - 17:24 What you love about Quebec

17:24 - 32:45 What would make you leave

32:45 - 46:23 Economic/job opportunities in Quebec

46:23 - 51:17 Language debate/feeling welcome

51:17 - 01:01:43 Succeeding in Quebec - you and your kids (needing French to succeed)

01:01:43 - 01:12:15 The Charter (targeting Muslims, Andy Nulman says if the charter goes through he will wear a headscarf, probably designer at 01:07:08)

01:12:15 - END Final thoughts from everyone

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask.

Till tomorrow,
Em

Hi

It would be great to tell her about the Stay or Go web chat on Thursday evening at 6:30 as well. She could invite her contacts to participate. The web chat is meant for people to have a forum to express their reasons for leaving or considering leaving. And to talk about their attachment to Quebec. Including the impact this election will have on their decision making.

Whenever there is an opportunity, please inform people about this all station event.

Thanks

Meredith

Invité: Peter Trent, maire de Westmount

Précède: Un sondage EKOS commandé par CBC/Radio Canada révèle que la moitié des gens issus des communautés anglophone et allophone du Québec a envisagé de quitter la province l'année dernière.

Les principales raisons évoquées par l'ensemble des répondants pour déménager ne sont pas fondées sur la langue: on évoque plutôt les taxes, l'emploi, l'incertitude politique et l'économie.

J'en parle avec le maire de Westmount, Peter Trent, et Bernard St-mes invités...
