Our Montreal	Weekly local current affairs program	02A-Analysis	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - An Evening with Janina Fialkowska	This documentary, filmed around Janina Fialkowska's February 25th 2013 concert performance at Pollack Hall in Montreal, looks back on a formidable career while examining the notion of mastery – dissecting the nature of musical perfection.	02B-Documentary	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - A Table in Quebec	A documentary special exploring the culinary culture of Quebec through the eyes and experiences of chef Danny St. Pierre, as he participates in the 11th edition of Montreal's famous Highlights Festival.	02B-Documentary	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - Hi Ho Mistahey!	Veteran NFB filmmaker Alanis Obomsawin follows teens in the Cree community of Attawapiskat as they take their plight for fairness in Canadian First Nations' education to the highest court of the United Nations.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Hockey Migrations	Hockey Migrations is a documentary following filmmaker Tony Girardin to northern Quebec where he follows the Tasiujaq Eagles as they gear up to face off in the Ungava Cup, the annual Nunavik hockey tournament. As the community rallies around the event of the year, we gain an unprecedented insight into the drastic shifts three generations have endured, and how bringing a zamboni to a northern community changes the game.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Legends of Magdalen	Guided by hand-drawn maps of over 300 19th-century shipwrecks around the Magdalen Islands, diver Mario Cyr explores these depths, questioning the notion of treasure as he seeks the lost artifacts of his forebears. A reflection of Maritime Quebec, its Mi'kmaq heritage and the cultural shifts these remote islands have experienced over 200 years.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Maple Mayhem	Exploring the sticky, golden universe of Canada's quintessential national emblem, this documentary showcases the culture and politics behind this industry in Quebec which recently suffered the biggest heist in agricultural history.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Our Voices	Young Quebec natives tell their own funny, poignant and moving stories through a series of short films about important aspects of their lives; their land, culture, music and identity. We meet the filmmakers in their own homes and on their own terms.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Parc Avenue Tonight	Inspired by the late-night TV greats, Dimitrios Koussioulas believes strongly in the hyper-local celebrity, bringing his popular web series concept, Parc Ave. Tonight, before a live studio audience for his TV debut. With an eclectic assembly of local luminaries, up-and-comer comedy acts and live musical guests, Parc Ave. Tonight is the first of its kind: a variety show from anglo Montreal. Featuring Doldrums, DeAnne Smith, AroarA The Sanchez Brothers, Cadence Weapon, among many others.	090-Variety	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - Small Wonders (2013)	Small Wonders is a playfully framed and edited character-driven documentary about three people who run small businesses in Montreal neighbourhoods.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Soccer City Montreal	Tele-journalist Lila Ait explores local Brazilian, Argentine, Spanish and Italian food, music and dance scenes during the height of Montreal's annual display of audacious, unabashed multiculturalism that is the 2014 FIFA World Cup.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - The Frog Princes	This documentary follows a young theatre troupe as they work tirelessly to put together a play under extraordinary circumstances. All twenty members of the cast face intellectual and mental disabilities. They must work through personal struggles, hopes and fears under the creative and therapeutic direction of a charismatic mentor and trained theatre director at Concordia University in Montreal.	02B-Documentary	Independent
