PLANNING

PLANNING

Championships teams don't just happen – they're built from the ground up one practice at a time. Learn how to structure your practice games to best meet the needs of your players based on their skill level, age and level of competition. You will also learn how to design a simple season plan that will help you make the most of every moment with your athletes on the field.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completing this clinic you will get credit for being able to:

- Identify appropriate logistics for practice;
- Identify appropriate activities in each part of the practice;
- Design an emergency action plan;
- Outline program structure based on available training and competition opportunities;
- Identify program measures to promote athlete development;
- Develop practice plans that integrate seasonal training priorities.

CLINIC STRUCTURE

The Planning clinic is a four-hour, in-class course offered at various locations across Canada.

PREREQUISITES

Before attending the Planning clinic, coaches must first successfully complete Baseball Canada's Online Initiation module.

EVALUATION AND CERTIFICATION

As it is part of the Baseball Canada Regional/Provincial Coach program, completing the Planning clinic will give you an In Training status. In order to receive Regional Coach - Trained status you must then complete the Initiation Coach clinic, Teaching & Learning clinic and Skills Analysis clinic.

Why NCCP?

IT BEGINS HERE.

Coaches are mentors, motivators and leaders. Along with parents and teachers, coaches have a profound impact on the future of our children. It's a great responsibility, and Canada's two million coaches embrace it with passion and dedication.

The National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) gives coaches the confidence to succeed. When you take an NCCP workshop, you'll not only gain sport-specific technical abilities, but also leadership and decision-making skills.

NCCP training will open doors to new opportunities in coaching and in life.
