HITTING

HITTING

Teaching hitting is like putting a puzzle together. Visualize the picture, analyze the pieces and then put the pieces in place. When put together, the result or goal is a skill, an achievement. Whether you are looking to develop sound hitting fundamentals or to refine your hitting mechanics, you'll find hitting tips in this workshop designed to help coaches make proper adjustments to player performance during practices and games.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completing this clinic you will get credit for being able to:

- Detect and correct fundamental hitting performance.

CLINIC STRUCTURE

The Hitting clinic is a four-hour, in-class or gym/field course offered at various locations across Canada.

PREREQUISITES

Before attending the Hitting clinic, coaches must first successfully complete Baseball Canada's Online Initiation module.

EVALUATION AND CERTIFICATION

As it is part of the Baseball Canada Instructor - Beginner Program, completing the Hitting clinic will give you In Training status. In order to receive Trained status, you must complete the the Skills Analysis clinic and the Teaching & Learning clinic. Why NCCP?

IT BEGINS HERE.

Coaches are mentors, motivators and leaders. Along with parents and teachers, coaches have a profound impact on the future of our children. It's a great responsibility, and Canada's two million coaches embrace it with passion and dedication.

The National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) gives coaches the confidence to succeed. When you take an NCCP workshop, you'll not only gain sport-specific technical abilities, but also leadership and decision-making skills.

NCCP training will open doors to new opportunities in coaching and in life.
