One more item to flag:

Breaking: Corus is acquiring Shaw's media division for $2.65 billion. Shaw Communications is selling its media division to Corus Entertainment for $2.65 billion – a deal that will help fund the telecom company's purchase of Wind Mobile. Shaw Media includes the Global Television network and 19 specialty channels including HGTV Canada, Food Network Canada and Showcase – formerly part of the Canwest business group before it was split up.

Bonjour,

A great deal of coverage and commentary on CBC's Anne of Green Gables announcement:

Anne of Green Gables gets a TV reboot
CBC series Anne will give a modern twist to Lucy Maud Montgomery's heroine
CBC has greenlit a new series based on Lucy Maud Montgomery's Anne of Green Gables. But while Anne will follow a similar storyline to the book about an orphan in the late 1800s who transforms the lives of the elderly brother and sister she comes to live with in Prince Edward Island, the series "will also chart new territory. Anne and the rest of the characters in and around Green Gables will experience new adventures reflecting timeless issues, including themes of identity, sexism, bullying, prejudice and trusting one's self," CBC said in a news release.

On the same topic:

'Anne of Green Gables' reboot in the works (Canadian Press)
Anne of Green Gables set for new life on CBC-TV (CBC News)
'Anne of Green Gables' TV Series Greenlit by CBC from 'Breaking Bad' Alum Moira Walley-Beckett (Variety)
Breaking Bad Writer Is Bringing Anne of Green Gables Back to Television (Jezebel)
Canadian writer of Breaking Bad to take on gritty — but G rated — reboot of Anne of Green Gables (National Post)

James Cudmore left CBC to join the Minister of Defense's office:

CBC parliamentary and defence reporter has taken a post with Canada's new defence minister
James Cudmore, the well known CBC TV journalist who covers defence and government, is now working for Defence Minister Harjit Sajjan. No word yet on his specific job but Cudmore said on his Twitter feed that today is his first day on the job. (National Post)

MADAYA: Letter of Complaint to Canadian Broadcast Ombudsman

The following is a letter written to the CBC ombudsman by an informed member of the public in Canada, enraged by the blatant anti-Syrian stance in the CBC reporting of the Madaya "starvation" situation.

...NOTE: Just last week, the CBC appeared to be leading the propaganda effort, with stories of famine in Madaya, with media operatives from the World Food Program (WFP) providing 'neutral' reporting – subtly spun and placing blame on the Syrian government and allied Hezbollah militia – as being responsible for the "blockade in humanitarian aid" to the residents of Madaya.

Anne of Green Gables gets a TV reboot

CBC series Anne will give a modern twist to Lucy Maud Montgomery's heroine

A beloved Canadian literary heroine is getting a 21st-century TV makeover.

CBC has greenlit a new series based on Lucy Maud Montgomery's Anne of Green Gables.

...They're teaming with U.K.-based producers Alison Owen (Temple Grandin) and Debra Hayward (Pride and Prejudice) of Monumental Pictures.

...The eight-episode series is to begin production this spring to debut on CBC-TV in 2017.

Anne of Green Gables meets Walter White

(Canadian writer of Breaking Bad to take on gritty — but G rated — reboot of Anne of Green Gables)

She wrote Ozymandias, the interminably dark betrayal-laden opus of the series Breaking Bad. Then she created Flesh and Bone, a series about the shadowy, dysfunctional backstage world of the ballet.

And now, Vancouver-born writer Moira Walley-Beckett has been set to drafting a gritty reboot of Anne of Green Gables for CBC.

régionaux tels que Radio-Canada et les diffuseurs éducatifs, les clients des distributeurs par câble et par satellite pourraient choisir tous les autres canaux qu'ils veulent à la carte.

Le nouveau gouvernement doit demander au CRTC de revoir ces politiques. M. Harper aimait bien promouvoir l'idée de donner aux « consommateurs » la capacité de choisir uniquement les canaux qu'ils veulent, en laissant entendre que cela ferait baisser leurs factures. Belle démagogie !
