Nous n'avons toujours pas reçu de billets de validation de stationnement pour World Exchange et notre inventaire est maintenant très bas.

Nous aurions besoin de 3$ et de 6$, merci.

Bonjour,

Le document ci-joint représente le total des coûts pour le stationnement des invités pour le mois de mai. S.v.p., vérifiez que ce sont les bons numéros de budget. Il en a quelques-uns manquants (voir la page 2).

Merci,
Caroline

Hi

That's great.

The studio is at 181 Queen Street... but unfortunately CBC has no parking (in a brilliant design feature). They can park at the World Exchange Plaza down the street (entrance is at 111 Albert Street), and keep the parking slip so we can validate it... and then just walk up the street to 181 Queen.

BUT: give yourself the time to get here!! i.e. it's about a 8-10 minute walk... and keep in mind the time to find parking.

When she arrives, she just says HER name at the front desk (i.e. don't ask for me) and someone will come down to get her.

She needs to be here at 4, she will be live on the radio at around 4:10.

Thanks Looking forward to seeing again!

Alan

Hey Alan,

Just wanted to check in with you to make sure we're all confirmed for tomorrow at 4:00pm with at the studio? Can you please let me know where would be best for them to park, and who they should contact when they arrive.

will be with her you can reach her at if you need to get ahold of them before they arrive.

Thanks!

It'd be live, interview only is fine (We can play tracks off album) and it's at 181 Queen.
Do let me know if the 4:00 or 5:30 time is better.

Hope you're having a great week! I know we talked a bit about possibly having in for a chat when she's in Ottawa on Tuesday, September 18th. I've attached her lyrics sheet for you as you said you would need that.

Can you please let me know if we might be able to set something up?

For parking: You can park at the World Exchange Plaza (111 Albert St) and walk over to 181 Queen St.
 Keep your parking slip for validation! (i.e. we pay for it after the interview)
 But give yourself enough time to still get here for 4:00.
 Just say your name at the front desk, and then someone will come down to get you.

 Hi

was FURIOUS! (no not really)

You are headed to:

181 Queen St.

When you get here, just say your name to the front desk.

Warning: we have no parking so if you're driving you need to park down the street at the World Exchange Plaza.

If you do that, keep the parking slip because we validate them... but GIVE YOURSELF TIME TO FIND PARKING.

We need you here in the building by 2:55 at the latest!

Thanks so much

Looking forward to it!

Hi there,

Alan

11/19/2012 10:22 AM >>>

This notice is best suited for Ottawa morning or All in a Day.

The Lanark Wild Food Club (LWFC) is holding an inaugural Wild Food dinner on November 24th. This club educates and encourages foraging. The club organizes an annual series of foraging walks: 2013 season begins on Ground Hog Day in February.

www.huntfishgather.com/index2.html

This inaugural dinner is a Charity fundraiser for the Mississippi Madawaska Land Trust Conservancy, who is a partner with the LWFC. The partnership allows permission for hunting (and angling and foraging) on new property bought.

This is the first wild food dinner of this significance being organized in Ontario- expected to be annual: wild game, local fish and wild edibles make up the menu.

November 24th

Lions Hall Fair Grounds, Perth

Social Hour 5 pm
Dinner 6 pm
and Silent Auction

over 160 people have bought tickets: there are many of us excited by this.
the tickets are just about sold out: actually this observation is in reference to the maximum numbers of seats in the Hall. originally the club targetted 125 ...

Chef:

he is a long-time wild food enthusiast and comes from a family of hunters. he has also led foraging workshops with the club

he is usually home by 3:15; He can provide info on foraging, further context etc.

it would be wonderful if you could cover it. tickets are waiting for you at the door if you wish.
if you can't attend and need local assistance to provide copy on deadline for you, i can certainly raise my hand to assist you....via blackbery!

Hello

I'm the associate producer at CBC Radio who reached you this morning to talk about Big Rig.

Thanks again for agreeing to come on the show Monday morning.

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8 a.m., if possible. As I explained on the phone, the interview will last about seven or eight minutes.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. Our director's name is Elizabeth Hay, and our host is Robyn Bresnahan. If you have any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), you can call Elizabeth as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio! Thanks again.

Pat Zito - Interview tomorrow

From: Jeanne Armstrong

Date: 9/11/2012 5:12 PM
Subject: Interview tomorrow

Hi

Thanks again for agreeing to join us tomorrow on Sparks Street. So here's the deal...

You'll be LIVE around 4:15 or so — but we'll need you at the studio at 4 p.m. Since we're doing it from a remote studio, outside our regular studio out on Sparks, things are going to be a bit hectic and unpredictable — so the earlier the better.

Alan Neal will do the interview — it'll last about seven minutes.

If you're driving in, you can park at the nearby World Exchange Plaza — located at Albert and Metcalfe. You'll be walking over to 181 Queen street — that's the entrance to our studios. Please arrive there INSTEAD of Sparks street — I'll be the one to meet you in the lobby and bring you in to the studio. Just let the security desk know that you're a guest on All in a Day and they'll page me to come down and pick you up.

And if you ARE parking, let security know about that too because they'll reimburse you for your parking stub.

If you have any other questions, please give me a call. 613-288-6503. Or on my cell —

I'm looking forward to having you on the show tomorrow! Thanks again and chat with you soon.

Thanks for this. And thanks for speaking with me today.

It would be great if you were at our studios tomorrow morning at 7 a.m. Please let the security desk know who you are and our show director, Neil Morrison, will come down and bring you into the studio. You'll be live at 7:15. The interview will be with our host Robyn Bresnahan — and it'll be about 6-7 minutes.

If you need parking, you can do so at the World Exchange Plaza. That's at Albert and Metcalfe. If you're driving NORTH along Metcalfe towards Albert, you can drive directly down the ramp into the parking garage. And if you let security know you've parked there, they'll reimburse your parking stub.

Let me know if you have anymore questions. If you have any problems tomorrow morning, please call our studio number 613-288-7012 (I won't be at the newsroom until about 9 a.m.)

Thanks again. I'll be sure to tune in and I look forward to hearing you.

Great news -- and thanks very much. Do you have a cellphone or a homephone I could have on file as a back-up emergency?

If you could be at our studios at 181 Queen Street this Friday at 2:50 that would work great. If you need parking, you can do so at the World Exchange Plaza at Albert and Metcalfe. Just let the security desk in the main lobby know and they'll reimburse your parking stub. I would usually ask to meet you in our main lobby, but on Friday you can just walk around to Sparks Street and meet us outside, where we'll be set up right in front of our studio windows.

Here's my number if you need to get a hold of me on Friday:

Hi

Thanks for agreeing to this. Our show runs from 3-6 p.m. on Friday and at this point, we do not know 100% where the interview with you will run. Right now, it is scheduled for around 5:20. Meaning that we would need you here at our studios for 5. I will let you know closer to Friday about a definitive time, but right now that's how it is looking.

We're located at 181 Queen Street. If you need parking you can do so at the World Exchange Plaza, at Albert and Metcalfe. Just bring your parking stub to our security front desk at the CBC and they'll reimburse you.

I would usually ask you to meet me in the main CBC lobby -- but because we're broadcasting the show live outside on Sparks Street that day and things will be hectic, it might be easier to just meet us out on Sparks Street. We'll be set up right in between Bank and O'Connor, just outside our studios. Here's my cell if you need to ring me that day:

These are the kinds of questions we might ask:

Sound good? Let me know.

See you Friday! Looking forward to it.

Hi

Nice speaking with you earlier. Here are the basic details for Monday. I actually just remembered I won't be here that afternoon, so I'm sorry we won't get to meet in person!

-We're at 181 Queen Street, between Bank and O'Connor downtown. When you get here (by 2:55 p.m. please), just introduce yourself at the front desk and tell them you're here for All In A Day. One of our staff will come out to greet you - possibly Caitlin Crockard, our show producer. Her extension is 6511 should the security desk ask you for it.

-Parking is available at the World Exchange Centre at Albert and Metcalfe. When you park there, just bring the ticket from the machine to our security desk after your interview, and we'll validate it for you to cover the fee.

-The interviewer is Alan Neal, the host of our show. You can expect to be on the air with him for 6-7 minutes.

-If there's any emergency that prevents you from getting here on time on Monday, please call Caitlin at 613-288-6511 as soon as possible. If it's after 3, call her in the studio at 613-288-7012.

Thanks for making time for our show. We're looking forward to the conversation, and to giving away a great prize!

Hi

Glad you got it, and that you're O.K. to read it in a weekend. I was relieved to see it wasn't a thousand pages long.

I confirmed with your [redacted] that Monday is good for him too, so here are the details:

-When you arrive, just introduce yourself at the front desk and let them know you're here for All In A Day. We'll come out to meet you and bring you in to the studio.

-Parking is available at the World Exchange Centre at Albert and Metcalfe. Bring your ticket to our front desk after the interview and they'll validate it for you so you don't have to pay the fee.

-The interviewer is Alan Neal, the host of the program. He'll be interviewing you along with [redacted] who's [redacted]

-You can expect the interview to take 10-15 minutes. Alan will direct some questions to you and some to [redacted] and you'll be able to comment on each other's perspectives as well.

-I or one of my colleagues would like to give you a call on Monday to talk about your thoughts on the book, so you'll have a better sense of what to expect during the on-air interview. Can we connect sometime between 10 and 1 or so?

Thanks, and talk to you soon.

Hi

Nice speaking with you earlier. I was just thinking about it, and it may be possible to interview you at 1:30 tomorrow. Would you prefer that? In that case, you'd need to get here at 1:15. Let me know if that works for you and we'll do that instead!

Here's the info for tomorrow:

-I'll call you at 10:30 for a pre-interview. That'll take about 15 minutes. It's just to get a sense of what you have to say on the topic so I can prepare some background for our host, Alan Neal.

-And here are the studio details:

- We're at 181 Queen St., between Bank and O'Connor.
- Parking is available at the World Exchange Centre at Albert and Metcalfe. If you bring your parking ticket to our security desk on your way out, they'll validate it for you so that you don't have to pay.
- When you get here just ask for me. I'm at 613-288-6497 if for some reason you're delayed.
- The interview itself will take 5-10 minutes. You'll just be speaking with Alan Neal in our studio. Our program is called All In A Day, and it airs from 3-6 on CBC Radio One (91.5 FM). If you'd like to have a look, our show website is cbc.ca/allinaday.

I think that's everything. Looking forward to speaking with you tomorrow!

Thanks for this additional info. Here are the details for your interview this afternoon:

- Our address is 181 Queen St.

You probably won't need it, but my extension is 6497 if there's any confusion and you need to reach me.

Sorry for the delayed reply. I wanted to get an answer for you first.

It's the first day of a new system on the front desk, which is probably why this happened.

We need to get $3 to you. If you're in the area, you could just pop in and pick it up, though that would incur more parking costs, so why don't we just mail it to you?

Dear

Thanks for agreeing to be a guest on Ottawa Morning.

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8am. You will be on-air at about 8.10 and finished by about 8.20.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. Our director's name is Neil Morrison, and our host is Robyn Bresnahan.

If you have any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), you can call Neil as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio!

Deborah.

$150 MILLION SETTLEMENT: A LANDMARK VICTORY FOR GENDER EQUALITY

Ottawa, July 3, 2012 - After an arduous eight-year fight for justice, health professionals represented by the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada (PIPSC) welcome the presentation of a milestone $150 million dollar settlement in the Walden et al. v. Canada case to the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal (CHRT).

"Today we can finally celebrate a huge victory for justice and equality," said Ruth Walden, a Registered Nurse and Medical Adjudicator working for the Canadian Pension Plan Disability Program who filed the initial complaint in 2004. "After eight years of investing time and resources in this fight for fairness while continuing to deliver an important service to the public, our members will finally be compensated."

Hundreds of Walden's colleagues joined her complaint which alleged that the federal government was discriminating on the basis of gender, because it would not recognize nurses doing medical adjudication as health professionals. Instead, these Medical Adjudicators had been classified as administrative/clerical staff. Now, more than 700 hard-working professionals will be compensated through this settlement.

"Since the federal government has stretched out the process unnecessarily, this result is a testament to the tenacity of these PIPSC members, and is a tremendous victory for gender equality in Canada," said PIPSC President Gary Corbett. "We are proud to have been able to support these members who have fought so long and hard to be recognized as professionals and are finally being compensated for past discrimination."

Unfortunately, the government's own legislation, the Public Sector Equitable Compensation Act (PSECA) will make it more difficult to address workplace gender discrimination issues in the future. The Professional Institute filed a Constitutional Challenge to the PSECA in 2009. The case is still before the Courts.

The Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada represents some 60,000 professionals across Canada's public sector, including some 2,600 nurses.

Ok, so here's the plan.

I spoke to _____ who is lovely, but he's in Toronto and can only do it over the phone.

In the meantime, I spoke to _____ (whom I believe you know) and, although not an economist, he is as fanatical about football, and very eloquent about the wider symbolism of the game too. And he can make it in person.

So, it will be you and _____ both in the studio tomorrow morning.

As discussed, here is the logistical info for interview tomorrow morning.

He will need to get to the CBC building at 181 Queen St for 7.30am. He'll be on air at around 7.45 and finished no later than 7.55.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. If he brings the parking stub to the CBC, our security desk will validate it after the interview.

When he gets to the building, he needs to report to the security desk in the lobby and tell them he's a guest on Ottawa Morning.

Our director's name is Denise Fung and our host is Robyn Bresnahan.

If he has any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), he should call Denise as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

I'll be at my desk (613 288 6963) for another couple of hours. If he can call me for a 5 minute pre-interview, I'd appreciate it.

Thanks again for your help with this.

Dear

Thanks for agreeing to be a guest on Ottawa Morning.

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8am. You will be on-air at about 8.15 and finished by about 8.25. As you know, it is especially important that you be on time, as we don't have a backup contact for you! I really appreciate you making the trip as you must be very busy.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. Our director's name is Denise Fung and our host is Robyn Bresnahan.

If you have any issues the morning of the interview, you can call Denise as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio!

Deborah.

Hi

Thanks for agreeing to come in tomorrow for Ottawa Morning.

As you will remember, CBC is at 181 Queen St. You should aim to get here for 7.00am. You'll be on air at about 7.15 and finished around 7.25.

You can park at World Exchange Plaza. Just bring the parking stub with you, and get security to validate it on the way out.

The number in the studio - in case there are any issues in the morning - is 613 288 7012. The studio director's name is Neil Morrison. He'll be there from 5am.

The host will be Amanda Pfeffer.

I look forward to hearing you on the radio!

Hi

Please thank

I just spoke with Julie Ireton and we agree with you that perhaps tomorrow would be a better plan so we treat the story properly.

Would [redacted] be available to speak with Alan on All in a Day tomorrow (Thursday) at 4:15 p.m.? If her schedule allows, we would prefer to have her join Alan in the studio here at 181 Queen. (I can review the parking details with her tomorrow.)

It would be helpful to me if I could speak with [redacted] tomorrow in advance of the interview to prepare her for what to expect. And it also gives me a chance to hear more background from her so that the actual on-air interview is well-focused. Might she have 20 minutes to chat with me for that "pre-interview" tomorrow between 10:45 a.m. and noonish?

Reporter Julie Ireton would be in touch tomorrow morning around 10 a.m. if she requires an on-tape interview with [redacted]

Hi

We're hoping to talk about this on-air at 4:20 p.m. this afternoon. It would run about 6 minutes. It could be here in studio with Alan Neal, or over the phone.

If you think this is a discussion worth having, but would not be available, would you have another suggestion?

Sincerely,

I work with CBC's Ottawa Morning. I believe you were speaking with my colleague Christine Maki earlier this week about the possibility of joining our host Robyn Bresnahan in studio tomorrow morning to talk about so I'm picking up the details from here.

We would love to have you on-air with Robyn at 7:40 a.m....which would mean having you arrive here at 181 Queen by 7:25 a.m. We would cover your parking if you parked at the World Exchange Plaza. (To access their parking garage you must be on Metcalfe at Albert St. Please bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and when you leave, ask the security guard to validate it for you on Ottawa Morning's tab.)

I would also like to speak with you by phone at your earliest convenience today for a background chat.

How does all this sound?

On Saturday, January 26, 2013, the CBC & Ottawa Public Library will present the 2nd annual Human Library at several library branches throughout the city. At a Human Library, instead of taking a book off the shelf to discover something new, "Borrowers" check-out human "Books" for 20 minute, one-on-one conversations inside the library. Borrowers ask open & respectful questions in order to gain insight into the Book's experiences. It's a half-day event that runs from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Here is a link for the list of Books who participated in the inaugural Human Library back in January 2012.

Hi

Absolutely!

It would mean arriving here at 181 Queen by 5:05 p.m. You could park directly across the street from the CBC at the Sunlife Financial Building's parking garage. Take the valet parking ramp, and tell the parking attendant you are a guest for the CBC. Please bring your parking pass with you to the CBC (and when you leave at the end of our interview, have our security guard validate it for you.)

When you arrive at 181 Queen, say hello to the security guard, tell him your name and that you're here for All in a Day. He'll call me and I'll greet you in the lobby.

How does all this sound?

Would you have a cell? We always like to have one in the unlikely event you don't arrive on time and we're wondering where you are.

Hi

Thanks again for taking the time to be part of our program tomorrow.
I meant to confirm the spelling of your names that I was given by Program: CBC's All in a Day with host Alan Neal. 91.5-FM. cbc.ca/allinaday

When: tomorrow (Wed, Sept 19th). Live-on-air at 3:40 p.m, please arrive here by 3:20 p.m. The on-air interview will last about 7 minutes or so. It'll fly by I promise!

Where: 181 Queen Street (between Bank and O'Connor) in Ottawa

Parking: We'll cover your parking if you park at the World Exchange Plaza. To access their covered garage you must be on Metcalfe, at Albert Street. (Metcalfe runs North and Albert runs East). When you exit the parking garage on foot onto Queen, go a block and a half west towards 181 Queen. (If you hit Elgin, you're going the wrong direction.) Bring your parking pass with you to the CBC and when you leave we'll have the security guard validate it.

Trouble?: If you experience any difficulty on the way in, give me a shout at my desk. 613-288-6499.

As discussed, Alan will mention the details of the fundraising gala on air. And we'll also post those details, and link to the association's web site on cbc.ca/allinaday

A reminder to send me the ginger juice recipe when you get a chance tonight or tomorrow before noon.

Sincerely,
Julie Delaney

Thanks for agreeing to be a guest on Ottawa Morning.

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8 am. You will be on-air at about 8:10 am and finished by about 8:20 am.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. Our director's name is Neil Morrison, and our host is Robyn Bresnahan. If you have any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), you can call as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio!

I am the producer of Ottawa Morning, CBC Radio. My host, Robyn Bresnahan, sat next to you recently at a dinner at the Chateau Laurier, where Mark Carney was hosting.

Let me know, and if you are available, I will get one of our producers to call you later in the afternoon.

O-Town Hoedown organizers announced today that sixteen bands and songwriters will perform over two weekends during the sixth annual O-Town Hoedown which will run on September 28th and 29th, and October 5th and 6th 2012 in Ottawa. The O-Town Hoedown is a concert series, which will take place in two different venues in Ottawa (Irene's Pub on the first weekend, and The Rainbow Bistro on the second weekend), and will showcase the diversity of the local alt-country scene. Musical genres on offer will range from rockabilly to cowpunk to folk-rock to bluegrass and everything in between. This year's musical acts will include: Ray Harris & the Bastard Sons of Bitches, Slo' Tom & The Handsome Devils, Uncle Sean & The Shifty Drifters, John Allaire & The Campistas, Jack Pine & The Fire, Sarah and Jeff, Steve Stacey & The Stump Splitters, The Divorcees, and many more. The O-Town Hoedown is organised by local country music impresario, Greg Harris, better known as Lefty McRighty, in association with CHUO 89.1FM, and CKCU 93.1FM.

Spokesperson Lefty McRighty said:

"Long-time fans might notice we've downsized from the past. Last year the Hoedown was ten days long which was, of course, awesome. However, we felt like maybe we didn't really need all the weekday shows in order to remain awesome, so this year we're trying "Hoedown Junior" for lack of a better term. There are still a whole bunch of bands and solo performers, they're just a bit more condensed than usual. If you'd like a sampling of the music featured at the Hoedown, or if you're on the radio and are looking for some tunes to play, check out otownhoedown.com/music for free mp3 downloads from a selection of this year's Hoedown roster. And don't forget to check out www.otownhoedown.com for complete listings."

It was good to talk to you on the phone --- I think this study will generate a lot of discussion.

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8 am. You will be on-air at about 8:10 am and finished by about 8:20 am. As I explained on the phone, the interview will last about 8 minutes.

Here are the details you will need for tomorrow:

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 8 am. You will be on-air with CBC English Radio at about 8:10 am and finished by about 8:20 am. As I explained on the phone, the interview will last about 7 minutes.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. Our director's name is Neil Morrison and our host is Stu Mills. If you have any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), you can call as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio!

Great!!! I probably won't pre-interview them until Tuesday, but you can tell them they need to be at the CBC at 8 am on Tuesday.

Here are the details they will need:

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

Since I am not producing the show next week, I will pass all this information on to the fill-in producer, Denise Fung. She or someone else on the show will be in touch about a pre-interview on Tuesday.

Thanks

Karla

I was just wondering if you were going to provide some questions that Robyn would be asking Lillian and In the show tomorrow. Thanks Doug

Here are the details you will need for Monday AM:

CBC is located at 181 Queen Street. You should aim to be at the building for 7 am. You will be on-air at about 7:10 am and finished by about 7:20 am. As I explained on the phone, the interview will last about 8 minutes.

CBC provides parking at the World Exchange Plaza. There is an entrance to the parking garage on Metcalfe at Albert. Bring your parking stub with you to the CBC, and our security desk will validate your ticket when you leave after the interview.

When you arrive at the CBC, let the security guard at the desk in the foyer know you are a guest on Ottawa Morning. I will be directing the show, and our host is Robyn Bresnahan. If you have any issues the morning of the interview (directions about where to go, stuck in traffic, illness), you can call as early as 5 am at 613-288-7012. That is our studio line, so there is no voice mail, but if you let it ring they will eventually pick up.

Looking forward to hearing you on the radio!

Margot,

I apologize for the delay in getting this done. Our payment centre can't reimburse until they get her SIN. Do you have an email for her? Can you get that info?

We are not paying the guest.
I will ask her for receipts.

Are we paying this guest? If so, we can add amounts to the contract. If not, she can mail us the receipts and we can issue a cheque.

hi Kelly,

I am bringing in a guest next week who will have to drive from K-W to Toronto. She's asking if we can pay for her gas and parking. I said, I thought that would be ok.

How should we handle that? Have her send us receipts???

Margot
