The documentary takes us inside the world of cricket and the daily life of Parc Extension – one of Canada's poorest and most vibrant immigrant neighbourhoods.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Fennario - The Good Fight	David Fennario, the great Quebec playwright (famous for Balconville, among others) and militant socialist is now confined to a wheelchair, but that has not dampened his will to take action and fight for progress. Martin Duckworth, a major figure in Canadian documentary cinema, captures all of his contradictory energy. Over the course of this encounter, the filmmaker attentively and enthusiastically records Fennario's charismatic presence, his political humour, his desire to be heard at all costs, for example through his last play, Mother House, a denunciation of the horrors of the First World War. By filming the process of staging the play, Duckworth reflects on the power of art while creating a poignant portrait of a man marked by history.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Hacking Montreal	Montreal is a global hub for 'hackathons', weekend-long contests for innovating technology. CBC Montreal looks at how local infrastructure, healthcare, transportation and leisure are being improved by volunteer maverick thinkers.	02B-Documentary	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - In Vitro: Quebec's New Fertility Frontier	Following three stories of people at various stages of IVF treatment in order to capture the impact of recent changes to Quebec's formerly one-of-a-kind IVF program.	02B-Documentary	Independent
