Canadian Dairy Commission
Commission canadienne du lait

Workforce Development Initiative (WDI)

Scholarship Program

Application Form for Eligible Scholarship Awarders

Name of eligible awarder:
Name of student:
Citizenship:
Voluntary self-identification[1]
Level of Study[2] (Master's/Ph.D.):
Topic of Study:
Name of research/thesis director:
Title of proposed research/thesis:
Expected start date:
Expected completion date:

For the application to be complete, please attach the following documents:
- all official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of the student (copies accepted);
- a list of the student's contributions to research and development;
- a summary of the student's proposed research, including experimental design, information on facilities and equipment to be used (maximum of two pages);
- résumé of the research/thesis director including credentials;

---

[1] Students are encouraged to indicate voluntarily on their application if they are a woman, an Indigenous person, a person with a disability or a member of a visible minority group.
[2] For which the scholarship is requested.

DD1893932

Canada

- a description of the benefit or impact and application of the proposed research to the dairy industry (maximum of one page);
- two letters of reference from university professors[3].

---

[3] Referees should be specifically asked to comment on the applicant's research potential, communication skills and interpersonal and leadership abilities.